Luke 14:26 NLT

“If you want to be My disciple, you must hate everyone else by comparison—your father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even your own life. Otherwise, you cannot be My disciple.

Reflect

Does Jesus actually desire that you “hate” the members of your own family? What does he mean?

How does loving Jesus more than the members of your family, empower you to love them more than you can on your own?

If your goal is to honor and please Jesus above all else, how will this affect how you treat your spouse? (How does Jesus desire that you treat your spouse?).

How can you begin to grow to love Jesus more than anyone else – including the members of your own family?
